“ The Turks were our next door neighbors growing up on Chirrewa. The three Turk boys and the three Taft girls were similar in ages and we grew up together. Those relationships and memories are something I cherish to this day.

Here's a few memories I have of the multitude of memories I could share. Mrs. Turk (all these years later and I still refer to the neighborhood parents as Mr. and Mrs.), Cheryl, was always so put together. She dressed to the nines and had a keen sense of fashion. She was so elegant and sophisticated. She had a really cool car - a VW Bug - that she used to tool around in. She had a big laugh and enjoyed her times with family and friends. She was loyal and devoted. She recommended for my first "real" job at Dimensions in Fashions where I was able to work with so many friends. She was always just over the fence if I needed to talk. Her presence in my life has had a lasting and meaningful impact.

RIH Cheryl.

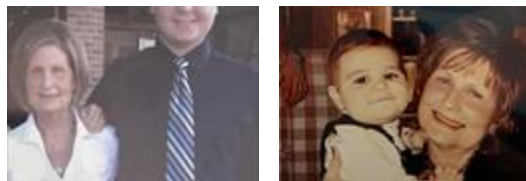

Love,

Shaun
