“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Chester will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Chester again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Chester seemed like a really nice guy, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ My deepest sympathy to his wonderful family. Uncle Chet was smart, witty, sensitive, loyal, hard-working, loving and a devote Catholic. I loved him like a father and will always be grateful for having him be a part of my life. I also loved his sense of humor. No one had a faster "one-liner" than he did! Love, Barbara
