

Chirag Desai

November 20, 1977 - February 21, 2024

In memoriam. Chirag Desai, a loving, giving, full of life individual has left us all too soon. His smile was contagious, his generosity was overwhelming, and his zest for life was palpable. Over the years, Chirag has helped many in seeing who they could truly become, and never hesitated to give a helping hand in their journey to get to their ultimate goal.

Chirag leaves behind a loving wife, Bhavika, and an adoring daughter, Chandni. He is survived by his brother Devang, and his mother Smita Desai. He will forever live in our hearts as one of the greatest people we've ever known and loved.

“ Chirag was my colleague at Cribl. He was smart, kind and never complained. We will miss him.

Cribl started a fundraiser for the family. It would be great if someone would share it on Facebook and or LinkedIn.

“ I've known Chirag for close to 20 years as our careers followed parallel tracks through several companies. Chirag was always sharp, positive, energetic, happy to share, and a pleasure to work with. A true colleague in the deepest sense of the word.

This is a life ending all too soon. His passing is a loss not only to his family and friends, but to the wider circle of colleagues and associates he grew over the years.

My heartfelt condolences to all who are grieving today.
