“ Our deepest sympathy goes out to your family. Please find comfort in the love and respect so many had for Tina. She was truly an amazing woman, who gave so much of herself to help others. We have been blessed to have experienced her friendship and love. May God comfort all during this time of grieving.

“ I am so sorry to hear about Tina. I saw her a couple of months ago and we hadn't seen each other in years. We talked at Richardsons about all that was going on in our lives. As I think about Tina now and that day, what I remember most is how much she loved her family and how much she valued life. You could see the love for God and her family in her eyes and you heard it when she spoke. You were her most valuable treasures in life and know that she will be with you always watching and guiding. May God comfort you in your time of loss.

Much Love, Karl, Simeon, Scott, Michelle, Timarie, and Miriam Sponsler

“ I want you to know that you and your family were blessed to be able to Love someone and have them Love you back. Even though you are going through a very difficult time now, with the loss of Christine. Know that one day soon you will see her again. When you get a chance read in your Bible at Revelation 21: 3, 4. And John 5: 28, 29. You are already a day closer to seeing her again. We never get over losing our Loved ones, but it does feel good sometimes to know that they aren't suffering anymore. Bryan, tell your brother and all the men in your family... This is one time that it is OK to Cry... It's not a sign of weakness, its a sign that we Love. Now is the time to get closer and to Love stronger. Hold each other and promise to always love each other. And remember, the dead take dying a lot better than the Living. Christine is asleep now and will rest until God awakens her. So now focus in on each other. We Love you and now will say like so many before us; We are here for you, if you need anything. Please don't hesitate to ask. Love always... The Barnes Family

“ There is nothing deeper than the Love that we share with a family member. In this life it is unfortunate that we sometimes only share that wonderful Love for such a short time. Sometimes when we think of all that is important in life and begin to make a list of these things, sometimes we review the list to find that it doesn't include what's most important. But its times like these that help us to reflect on the things that are most important.

“ Tina touched many lives and has continued to inspire us even through her illness. Scripture tells us that to 'be absent from the body is to be in the presence of the Lord'. We rejoice with her that she is now in a new and glorious place with her Heavenly Father and free from her suffering..She will be missed but her memory will live on. Her family will continue to be in our prayers.
