“ Dori, Carrie, Mike and John, It's taken me a while to gather my thoughts about the passing of your mom. I was only four or so when she and your dad came over to our house in Chicago to ask me to be ring boy at their wedding. I didn't know what that was but your "uncle melmer" signed me up. A week before the wedding, I contracted measles and couldn't go! Over the next few years we'd get together on Easter or Christmas at Grandma and Grandpa Malone's. Since we were behaving as kids did, our mom's reacted totally differently. My mom would yell and your mom would smile. I'll always remember her that way, smiling. Love to you all, your cousin Russ Russ

“ I'm so sorry for your significant loss. Christine was my friend and I will miss her terribly. I am so sorry I did not make it to pay my respects to her family who meant so very much to her. I'm so grateful to God for bringing her into my life and for letting me meet her beautiful children at Westland Rehab. God bless all of you, you will forever be in my prayers. Cathy Arsenault

“ Our deepest sympathy to all of you during this time of grieving. Your Mother knew she was well loved by her children and grandchildren and long time friends. Keep her love alive with glad and happy memories. Savor the good times and take comfort knowing she is at peace. Love to you all....mom and Bob

“ Dear Dori, Carrie, Mike and John, My deepest sympathies to each of you and all of your families. I have so many happy memories of my Aunt Chris smiling, laughing, (and cleaning) with coffee cup in hand! Her passing has closed the chapter for a generation in the Malone legacy. Although our family gatherings were infrequent, there was always plenty of entertainment when the Malone brothers and their wives got together, no matter where they were! Your mom accomplished the extraordinary, raising 5 wonderful kids, with two grandma's, and enough moves to rival any military family, and always ready with a smile and a kind word. I remember seeing a palm tree in a pot on your patio when you moved to Michigan all those years ago. Your mom insisted on bring a piece of California with her. Of course, why not a palm tree! I hold memories like this close in my heart, and hope I'm making memories like this for my own kids. I hope the lifetime of memories you carry within you will bring you comfort - and a smile among your tears. She will always be the sweetest Dolly of all. All my love, Linda “ Heaven is a little brigher now that this lovely lady is sitting at the table with Jesus and the Blessed mother. Better make sure the coffee pot is on and if there are donuts then that is better. We will always remember all the laughs and good times we had with one of our wonderful neighbors at our back yard parties on Willow Creek.

“ Im truly sorry to hear about the lost of a loved one. Coping with death definitely has its challenges. What helps me is reading and meditating on John 5:28,29 which stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." In the near future you will be able to see Christine again. I hope these word provided some comfort.
