“ I am so very sorry for your loss. We need comfort in many areas of life. God's Word acknowledges that our heart can be "broken and crushed." (Ps. 51:17) God is certainly able to deal with this situation, for "he is healing the brokenhearted ones, and is binding up their painful spots." (Ps. 147:3)No one is ever prepared for the passing of one so young. But, God remembers who has been lost to you. I hope you find comfort from his holy scriptures and his promise at John 5:28, 29.

“ We shared lots of years and had a whole lot of fun. But God has called you home to his son. I just can't believe it has ended this way- There were so many things I wanted to say. It's too late for that now, it will just have to wait, until the day that I see you at the heavenly gate. May your soul rest well, my beloved brother but the day is not over, because we shall share another. Your death has left a big hole, but don't fret your now a free soul. So when times are great, and happy as such, I'll think of you, my brother. I'll miss you so much so goodbye for now, my brother I have not one regret, you were a part of my life that I will never forget.

“ May the Hearer of prayer give the family the comfort needed during this time of grief (Psalm 65:2). God is a refuge for us in times of distress. May you find relief in His promises of life again for our lost love ones like Chris, found in His word during this time of sadness.

“ God looked around his Garden and found an empty place. He then looked down upon his earth and saw your loving face. He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest. His Garden must be beautiful, he always takes the best.

He whispered to you "Peace be Thine" and gave you wings to fly. You've left us precious memories, your love will be our guide, You live on through your children, you're always by our side. It broke our hearts to lose you, but you did not go alone. For part of us went with you on the day God called you home

“ 34 years ago you came into my life leaving your indelible imprint upon my heart. I thank God for the time we had, for I knew you were only a loan. Now God has chosen you to come home and I must accept it. Words cannot describe how deeply you have been loved and will be missed. Rest well my darling boy. All of my love, Mom.
