“ Dearest Family,

Im so happy I was able to meet all of you. Youre entire family is phenomenal and I wanted to thank you all for making me feel so welcome in your time of need. I wish the circumstances in meeting you all were different, much as we all do, but none the less I'm extremely happy that I did meet you. I will always be there if any of you need ANYTHING from me, I hope that you know that. Chris is a beautiful person and I take great comfort in the fact that still, he is always around. I love him and your family always.

Sincerely,

“ Debbie, Tom, Kelly and Robin,
We were privledged to know Chris and call him a friend. There was something about the way chris would say certain things that made me laugh like crazy. I will miss that! We are praying for you as you also hold onto the best of memories about Chris. Debbie, you know me. I wish I could wrap you all in the comfort of God's love and make the pain go away. We do love all of you, and God's love is surrounding you now.

“ Tom, Debbie, Kelly & Robin,
I'm so sorry to hear of the loss, I love Chris so much and I wish we could have spent more time together as we got older. I have som many funny memories of us doing some very stupid stuff. I will never forget the time we dance in the car or stood in line for hours just for some dumb concert tickets. Chris was a very dear friend and everyone around will miss him so much. I will always keep him close to my heart. Chris was just such a great person and I will never forget him. My prayers are with you at this hard time. I love you all

“ Tom, Debbie, Kelly & Robin,
We love you and are praying for you at this time of great loss. Debbie and I were honored to have Chris as one of "our kids" when he was in the youth group. We have so many memories of him at retreats, the youth center, activities, wheelchair basketball games, he and I grabbing a bite at McDonalds to discuss "life", e-mail conversations, hugs and high-fives in the church hallway and the list goes on and on.
Chris will be missed, but we are so grateful for the hope we have of seeing him again someday ... without his wheelchair! I am looking forward to him leaping into my arms!

“ Dear Debbie, Tom, Kelly and Robin

My heart grieves along with you, but I keep thinking about all the beautiful memories of Christopher's life - his incredible smile, how embarrassed he would get when we would come up from behind and kiss on him, the 3 Stooges in the bathroom?, how he could crack me up telling his stories. Chris had the "Bennett side" ability to make every story humorous. What a gift! A treasure to last.

*Memories eternal -'til we meet again.
love,
Dawn*

“ Tom, Debbie, Kelly and Robin,
Our prayers, thoughts and love are with you at this time of loss.
Chris was an incredible testimony of strength, integrity, and living life to the fullest. You can be very proud of the wonderful memories he has left for those of us who knew him. May God provide all of the comfort you need at this time as only He can do.

“ "Perhaps they are not stars, but rather holes in the sky so the light may shine down from the heavens and our loved ones can watch over us and make sure we are alright..." (adapted from an Eskimo legend)
I hope all of you find peace at this time knowing that God's story for Chris on this earth has been fulfilled and he is now reveling in the beauty of the life we are all working towards. All of you now have another special angel to watch over you.

“ Love never dies. Inspired speech will be over some day; praying in tongues will end; understanding will reach its limit. We know only a portion of the truth, and what we say about God is always incomplete. But when the Complete arrives, our imcompletes will be cancelled. We don't see things clearly. We're squinting in a fog, peering through a mist. But it won't be long before the weather clears and the sun shines bright! We'll see it all then, see it all as clearly as God sees us, knowing him directly just as he knows us! But for now, until that completeness, we have three things to do to lead us toward that consummation: Trust steadily in God, hope unswervingly, love extravagantly. And the best of the three is love.

I love you guys with an eternal passion and feel profound sadness for your loss. I am thankful I had the privilege of getting to know Chris. He is forever beautiful to me.

“ Tom, Debbie, Kelly & Robin:
Mike and I can't tell you how much we love all of you. We consider you all family and feel blessed that Chris enjoyed coming over to our house. Chris was a very special young man. He never saw himself as handicapped. He did what everyone else did and that is why he had so many friends. He never wanted anyone to feel sorry for him! Mike and I will miss his crazy sense of humor and his beautiful smile.
Thank you for allowing us to get to know and love Chris. He will forever be in our hearts.
We love you all very much,
Mike & Lori
