“ Chris you came into my life so enthusiastic and energetic with that captivating smile of yours and brought so much joy to others by just being there with your helpful ways. I was so thrilled when you chose to call me your grandmother. I am so going to miss my helper in June at the canoe trip~~~You left us so soon and unexpected~~~I almost feel like you were an Angel unawares~~~Only God knows.

“ Dear Milo Family, Sorry to read about Chris. Its sad to see someone loved by so many with so much to look forward to have to pass, Despite the pain take comfort in the hope of seeing him again (John 5:28,29). In a world free of sickness, pain and death (Revelation 21:3,4). Their Chris can be reunited with loved ones and reach his full potential.

“ Our hearts bleed for the loss of Christopher. I realize it does no good to say we are sorry for your loss. We have spoken with family and friends pertaining to your loss and know we have no way of knowing the pain you are suffering. Christopher will be in our prayers. I smiled this week and thought about when he gave me his telephone number on a piece of paper last summer, indicating he can do vehicle waxing and cleanup. I will remember that day forever. We drive by his home daily as we drive through Hunters Park.
