“ My deepest deepest condolences to the Nemeth family. Christopher was a WONDERFUL cousin and was truly a good man. I looked forward to holidays when he would come over with family. And my foundest memories are when i baby sat Elizabeth and he'd always come home with a smile on his face when he saw his daughter. I enjoyed the rides home with him and all the talks we had. Let your wings fly and enjoy the peace in heaven God has provided for you. Always in my heart.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Chris' family at this hard time. Chris was a very loving and caring man. I really enjoyed our talks about Southwest Detroit and Delray where he grew up. Chris was very proud of his Hungarian heritage which was great. I will always remember and think of you Chris. May God rest your soul in eternal peace.

“ My deepest condolences to the Nemeth family. Although I never met Chris, I felt like I had through the many stories Eric has shared with me over the last few years. Just last Wednesday Eric was sharing some of those stories with me and the next morning he was gone. Life is so complicated with too many unanswered "whys?", but we must know that it cannot be taken for granted and always let your loved ones know how much they are loved. My thoughts and prayers are with your family and may Chris rest in peace.

“ Your loving cousin Elaine remembers, Christopher was a very good baby. You put him in the corner of a couch put a blanky around him and he would just stay put. But growing up you couldn't get him down. No time to waste. Married , 3 beautiful children and 3 grandchildren. His time for himself was gone. His love for his family is where it all went. RIP Christopher you will never be forgotten. Love you.

I am so sorry for your loss. Attended a foodlab event at Forgotten Harvest a few years ago and was so impressed by his goodness and upbeat personality. Later found out he was Eric's brother...made the connection. Two good guys from Delray...God Bless your family and keep all of you in His embrace. He is another good man gone too soon.

“ I am so sorry to hear of the tragic loss of a dear soul, Chris Nemeth. Chris used to be my manager at Hibu. He hired me there. Chris was a great mentor and always encouraged, always inspired, and had the gift to bring such inspiration into peoples hearts, minds and souls. He was a true leader! A true warrior. He loved his wife and family more than anything in this world and his grandson! My thoughts and prayers are with the family at this most difficult time and they will continue to be thereafter. I wish I could be there but I am living out of state in Florida now. I wanted to share my condolences with the family at the very least. 🙏 Rest well my friend.
