“ To the family of Mr. Clyde Godin. To the son Clyde, I am sorry to hear about your fathers passing. I hope your are the fella I knew years ago. May your dad be at peace and be with our Lord. From an old friend Gail Zaya-Gregorich.

“ Grandpa, I want to thank you for all the good memories. You took every chance you could to see our family and we always were happy to see you. You would light up the room when you came in. When my family would be arguing and you would come over we would stop instantly and everyone would be glad to see you. Our family has always united around you. Every family get together everybody would always be glad to see you.

I know you're in a better place and you finally get to see grandma again. Tell her I said hi and I love her. You've been waiting a long time to see her. You lived a long good life and stuck around as long as you could. You overcame a lot of medical problems and survived many of them. The things you overcame show a good example that you strived to overcome challenges. You're an aspiration to us all. You have shown that time and time again you would succeed. I'm glad that you're finally at peace and you're no longer hurting.

You taught me everything you could and inspired me to do better in life. I wouldn't be the same person I am today if it wasn't for you.

You were a nice man and inspired me to treat everyone good. You led by example and showed me how to be a better person. You treated our family so good, and the kids loved seeing you. Thanks for taking the time with every kid, grandkid, and great grandkids, you took every chance you could to see each and every one of them and they loved it. You were the best we could ask for of a grandpa.

You always were working on a project or fixing something. Your accomplishments were more than many of us could hope to achieve from working on the design for the Ford Mustang, to working on missiles during the war, to working on a think tank, having a large family, to surviving multiple serious medical issues and life threatening situations, etc...You inspired me to make the most of time and accomplish as much as I could.

While we wish you were still here and the time is never enough, I'm still lucky to have had you for so many years. There's so many good memories I can't even count them, thousands of them, I won't run out of them any time soon. You were a miracle to our family. Thank you for every smile you put on the young children's faces, and for every time you made them laugh. You were wonderful to them. I am forever grateful and thankful for the way you treated our family. Thank you for everything you taught us, all the things you helped us with, all the times you came to see us, all the times we traveled, all the memories, all the times you cheered us up, all the stories and jokes, all the holidays you spent with us, all the fun we had, and every gift you gave us. The love you showed our family is one we will never forget. We will never forget you Grandpa. We will love and miss you forever. You are a shining star in our lives. I love you to the end of eternity and to the ends of the universe. Rest In Peace Grandfather. I'll see you again someday.

“ Mr Godin had a way of being quietly freindly without being shy. Many years back, when he was able, he could be counted on to help move chairs or tables at church events. I remember him once during Sunday School having to keep one of his young sons in line, and even that he did quietly. If I happened to encounter Mr Godin in an uncrowded corner (he could always make a corner feel uncrowded), I found we usually have a meaningful conversation, even on an ordinary topic. My memories of Mr Godin seem random, I am sure, but they are peaceful.

“ I met Clyde when I began volunteering at the Plymouth Historical Museum in 2008. His woodworking skills were amazing and I thoroughly enjoyed his stories of life in the Copper Country, as well as his memories about my father's tenure among the PHM Maintenance Crew.

I will carry forever his stories about the "SS Maytag", the boat he powered with an old washing machine engine. Not to mention the other characters that he told us about from his youth.

Sail on, old friend! Your bench in the Maintenance Room will be officially renamed in your honor.

“ My Wonderful Grandpa or as my Juliette would say, our Great Godin, you are already so missed. It breaks my heart knowing I'll never hear you say again how proud you are of me or excited about something for me. Juliette says you are her hero and I can't help but agree with her. Love you and see you on the other side. Couldn't have asked for a better grandpa for 35 years of my life.

“ A wonderful, selfless and loving grandpa. Honestly the best there ever was. There are no words for the brokenness we will feel without you in our lives. The ridiculous jokes. The frog hands. The high fives my girls have you that made your arm fly into the air. Love you forever and always.

“ Everyday is a memory.. much of me and what I do is because of my grandfather; he is a huge part of who I am.. at least all the good parts.

He was an amazing man who was blessed to live amazing life and I am so blessed to be part of the wonderful family he created with my late loving grandmother.

Thanks for being the man you were. I know after 22 long years; your back with grandma now as you wanted and I can take solice in that. I love you Grandpa; I'll miss you always.
