“ Please accept our deepest sympathy. It is so sad when we lose our loved ones, and our hearts go out to all the family members. We do have faith in the Bible's wonderful promise that we will see him again, when there will be no more tears, sickness, or death. Rev. 21:4

“ Sorry to hear about the loss of your father. Uncle Clyve was always an inspiration to me. I remember well the many reunions and occasions when your family visited the farm. You are all very fortunate to have a father of such high moral character. You are also very fortunate to have a father who loved all his children with unending love. Will not be able to make it to the funeral home or the services, but know that I will be thincking of you and your family in this time of sorrow. Dennis

“ Dear Jackie, I was saddened when I heard this morning of Clyve's death. He was such a delight to be around when he worshipped with us. I know that you are saddend too. I pray that knowing others are praying for your strength during these days will be of comfort to you. We miss you at church too. Know that you are in my prayers and we will let the people know during joy and concern time Sunday morning. In Christian love, pastor may

“ Jackie,
We were so terribly sorry to see your Dad's obituary in the paper this morning. He was such a gentle man. It was a blessing and a joy to have known him.
Be assured that you, and your family, are in our thoughts and prayers.
Your Friends in Christ,
Bonnie & Darrell
