“ My name is Paul Higgins and I grew up in Waverly, Virginia. I saw Cordelia's name in the obituary section of the Newport News, Virginia newspaper and I knew that I was kin to her. My grandmother, who was Rosa May Rogers, was sister to Frances Cofer Rogers who was Delia's mother. I visited Aunt Tan as we called Frances Rogers in Surry, Virginia many times and came in contact with Delia many times. I have many good memories of taking my grandmother to visit. There are still Rogers Family reunions in the fall and in Surry. There are published genealogies of the Rogers Family. I knew she had moved away but was not sure where to. She lived a long life and brought happiness to all who came in contact with her. I know you will miss her but know she lives in us all who remember her.
