“ I first met Rene and Barb when the Garcias took us to their condo on Siesta Key. What a striking couple they made, beautiful and as tan as anybody I had ever seen. At first I was a bit intimidated but they were so nice and down to earth it was amazing I last spent time with Rene a week before her passing, she remained a warm, interesting, and young at heart person. She will be missed. (I think of them every time I buy my No Ad sunscreen- which Rene recommended way back when 😊)

Renee has always been so friendly and kind at family gatherings. It was very easy to see how proud she was and the love she had for each and every member of her family. Sue (Gates) Rutledge- Hehl

“ I have so many priceless memories with my amazing grandmother that it's nearly impossible to share just one. She has impacted my life profoundly with her constant love and support. I was blessed to be her first born grandchild and have her in my life for 45 years. When I look back to my childhood, the best memories I have include her. One in particular were the Christmas Eve's in Livonia. The entire family would gather and wait for Santa. Grandpa would go outside and make noise on the roof so we'd hear Santa's sleigh land. With anticipation and excitement, we'd all scramble downstairs and wait for his magical appearance. Santa would call us each up one at a time to sit in his on his lap to give us our special gift. He always held a leather bound book with a list of our names, checked twice. The book included information about each of us, Santa knew everything. As I grew and realized that the special book was written by my Grammother, the day meant even more. The magic of Christmas never ended for me. My grandma always made us feel special. My last vision of her was standing in a doorway blowing me kisses. Now I am blowing them back...all the way to heaven. I know she has the biggest angel wings up there and she's flying free. I love you Gram!!! I miss you dearly.
