“ From the moment I saw him again after ten years when he was 28 yrs old and he told me that he had gotten married, I realized what a blunder I had made by not giving him a first date kiss when he so gentlemanly asked. The handsomest man I ever laid eyes on. I've thought about him throughout the years, wondering if he was happy and fulfilled. I know nothing about the man he became but wished I had. To his mother, son and aunt I extend my heartfelt condolences.

“ I am a Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses my wife and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your loved one. We would like to leave you with these words of encouragement from Gods word the Bible. At Job 14:14 it ask the question, "If a man dies, shall he live again?," The bible makes the promise: Your dead love ones will live...They will rise up. The bible also says, The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it. Isaiah 26:19;Psalms 37:29. May you find comfort in these scriptures and in the loving memories of your loved one. If you have any questions or concerns about the lost of your loved one feel free to email us at ctksdk@yahoo.com

“Curt, I already miss you so much. You were the one I always called when I needed to talk to someone special - some one who was always a great listener. We always ended up laughing before the call was over. We always understood each other, we were very good friends! Rest in peace until we meet again, my friend.

“Curt, how I'll miss you--our long phone calls where we solved all the World's problems and your sense of humor. I'll always remember the cute little boy who turned into a hardworking man, a great father and a loving family member. We'll share those memories again in Heaven. Until then, I'll have my loving memories to comfort me. Love you, Mom.
