“ I just heard about Curt's passing. I am so sorry. May God be there for his family during this time. I knew Curt when his mom and dad lived 2 doors down from my grandparents and he was so nice to my grandma & grandpa. He will be remembered fondly.

“ To learn about the character of an individual is to be with them in the thick of battle, knowing you can depend on them, knowing you can trust them, knowing just how amazing they are based on their past performances at your side. If there was anyone you'd want on your team in the thick of battle it would be Curt. I am proud to have known him.

“ I remember Curt as a fun-loving, nice person who I went through Fordson High School with in the same graduating class of 1969. He was a tremendously gifted athlete also, and he will never be forgotten. I send all my condolences to his family. He passed away much too young. What I really remember about Curt is his deep respect for Fordson High School and what traditions it stood for. He liked to joke around and was very funny. I admired his bright red hair. We had just one class together. I sat right behind him in first-hour World History class when we first arrived at Fordson back in September, 1966.

“ Dear daughters, Your dad was a very kind and sweet guy. I am so sorry this has happened to him and that you have to experience such sadness. Curt always had a smile on his face in spite of the challenges he faced. I will be sure to keep him and his girls in my thoughts and prayers. He was well aware of your love for him, and it was very obvious he was so proud of all of you. Please stay strong and know he will be with you always. I am so sorry I cannot make it to the funeral or to the funeral home, but please know that I will be thinking of you all during this difficult time. Sincerely, Soo (Helen's sister).

“ Kristen - So sorry for your loss. I'll never forget the enthusiasm your father brought to our school. He was an incredible teacher. He is not gone - he is simply away. You shall be with him again someday. In the meantime, cherish the memories and know that he is now your Guardian Angel. GOD BLESS!
