“ Mom, I still think about you every single day of my life. How I wish so much for you to see what I, Faron, and Jacob have become. You would be so proud of us. Dad is a strong savior, and mentor for us whilst you are on your journey with Christ. I pray everyday that you see and look down on us from the holy land and rejoice the new paths life has for us in in your absence. For we all four, will see you one day. So many things I wish to tell you and share. You will always forever me with me as I live and breathe, my mother, my mentor, and best friend.

“ My heart goes out to the Glover Family and Friends. This scripture one of many helps me to cope. (Isaiah 25:8) "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord JEHOVAH will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for JEHOVAH HIMSELF HAS SPOKEN IT. Thank, you “ Cyndi, The road is sometimes so well-paved and sometimes so full of potholes. We met at a few reststops. Who knew you'd exit so soon leaving behind such a large black hole...

“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Cynthia will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Cynthia again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Cynthia seems like a really nice lady, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)
