“ Dear Family:

Hello:

I was sorry to read about the death of your loved one. I know how it hurts when a loved one dies, and my heart goes out to you in sympathy.

I have been comforted with the Bibles promises of those who are now asleep in death will wake up when God's son, Jesus Christ will use his power in the near future. The scripture at John 5:28, 29 records this promise:

“Do not marvel at this because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.”

The Bibles' promise has aided many to cope during these stressful times and to have the confidence in the Bible based hope of a Paradise earth ...where death would be no more.”

{Revelation 21:3-5}

“ Dear Frank and Benes family
I am also grieving the loss of Cindy. Together we shared our chemo experiences, she shared with me her joys and sometime hurts. I always looked forward to her appointments at the office because she always had a way of leaving some humor and love behind. A part of her will always be a part of me. My deepest sympathy to you.

“ Sarah -

My heartfelt thoughts and prayers are with you and your family right now. I hope that you will find comfort in the loving memories that your mom has given you to cherish forever. What a blessing that is to have a mom who loved you and her family as much as she did each of you.

Her love and legacy lives on with you and the rest of your family.

I am so sorry for your loss.

“ *Dear Frank, girls and all the family; Cindy was my cousin for 58 years and although we were not close, I loved her as I love all my extended family. I'm sorry not to be with you this week because I know what losing one's mother means and how it feels. Frank, I'll write you a note later. I'm glad she's now with her Daddy and the suffering is over for them. Your cousin,
