“ I'm seeing this for the 1st time (Dec 2012) and I'm shocked/shaking. Dan and I were great friends back in Boston in the 80's. He was truly a class act and everyone we worked with at Putnam Investments loved him. My heart pours out to Dan and all his family and friends.

“ Dear Dan, I am so sorry to learn of your passing and the pain and suffering you went through. I have obviously thought of you throughout the years and wished nothing but the very best for you. I am so sorry I did not know you were sick. I am sorry for the heartache we went through as kids. No one deserves that pain and sadness we went through. You were a good man - your mom use to say you were God-like. She was good to me. I still think of her wise conversations and pieces of advice she use to say to me. I still live by Desiderata. May heaven (where I know you are) be a place of no pain, heartache, and sickness. We were so young, I was so immature, you were so mature. Sorry Dan! Rest in peace.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by Jehovah God, that he will wipe every tear and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ I love you, Dan and miss you so much. Someday it will get better and I will see you again. I truly do love you with all my heart even if you do think it is a little "creepy". We did the best we could didn't we? You are such a good brother and I am so grateful for the time we had in this life. I am going to miss you for a long time and my heart is just aching, but you are no longer in pain and I am so grateful for that.

“ Loving Uncle and Godfather to my children. My heart breaks for the loss to my family. We will never be able to fill the void left from his passing. My deep sorrow felt for my own loss of Dan is only deepened by the great loss felt by my husband, Richard. A more true, devoted brother there could never be. Best friends forever.

“ I love you, Uncle Dan. I miss you. I am struggling with your death but know that you're with Grandma and Grandpa and at peace. That is what keeps us going. I hope to live my life like you and for you, this is a promise I made when I left the hospital. Please help me to stick to this, Uncle Dan. I love you so much.
