“ I am a Minister of Jehovah's Witnesses my wife and I would like to give you and your family our deepest sympathy for the lost of your loved one. We would like to leave you with these words of encouragement from Gods word the Bible. At Job 14:14 it ask the question, "If a man dies, shall he live again?," The bible makes the promise: Your dead love ones will live...They will rise up. The bible also says, The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it. Isaiah 26:19;Psalms 37:29. May you find comfort in these scriptures and in the loving memories of your loved one. If you have any questions or concerns about the lost of your loved one feel free to email us at ctksdk@yahoo.com
Sincerely, Carlos & Sandy

“ Danny, Theresa, Aaron, and Mrs. Antieau -

I am so sorry for your loss. Danny (or little Danny as I remember him being called) was always the cutest little boy. As my memory serves, he was similar in nature to Mrs. Antieau, very kind, quiet and gentle. As he grew into this handsome man, as shown in his picture (looking very much like his cousin Lisa), I can still see the little boy with his kind and gentle nature. My prayer for comfort and the peace that surpasses all understanding will continue for the Antieau/Schomberger families.

*Love to you all,

“ Handsome, kind, creative, fun - a perfect host and perfect partner for Aaron Boast. Not only was knowing Dan a joy but getting to know his parents as well proved the apple does not fall far from the tree. Dan was a helper - from the thousands of people he talked through crisis - to the time he rescued our Thanksgiving! I always think of Dan and Aaron at this time of year because they installed a generator and got the lights and heat back on in our house just in time for the holiday after a strong windstorm knocked out power and nearly cancelled our plans. I will always be grateful and I will never forget they dropped what they were doing to help us - true friends, truly wonderful people. Dan will be greatly missed.

“ I will forever miss my "little business man". I remember all the times Danny would come stay the weekends with us. I always enjoyed his humorist personality. Theresa, Dan, and Aaron my prayers are with you through these difficult times.
