“ To the family and friends of Danny. I did not know him well. I simply spoke with him briefly whenever he served me at his job. Danny always, always was friendly and smiling and professional. Danny is very kind-hearted. I will miss him, and I know that broken hearts never mend, but we were graced and so blessed with Danny touching our lives, however briefly.

“ Danny was a wonderful young man and a great friend. I got to know Danny through Brad Way later in High School and wish I would have met him sooner. I will always remember how his face would light up when he and his friends were together. Danny will live on forever in the hearts of all who cared and loved him dearly. My deepest condolences go out to his family and friends. We may have lost Danny but he will be remembered for ever and always.

“ The Cassidy Family The NBK wasn't just a group of friends; it was our second families, our brothers. We did everything together, and when we weren't together, we knew where each and every one of us was. We shared something special among all of us that could never be explained. We lost our brother who we all loved very deeply. A part inside all of us is gone with him forever, but one day we know that all six of us will be together again. We love you guys so much

“ Danny, the impact that you have had on your friends, your community and anyone that you touched in some way is evident all around. As an extended member of our family, we laughed, joked, talked often and assumed nothing would ever change. You and Brad were the very best of friends and as part of the ‘inseparable six, your legacy will forever be forged in the hearts and minds of who loved you. Danny, we are all better to have known you and we will honor your legacy by living our lives as you lived yours, with truth, honesty, humor, integrity and most importantly, an undying love of family and friendship. Roger and Sally, you raised an outstanding young man whose impact will not soon be forgotten and you should be very proud. Forever in our hearts.....

“ Danny and myself have known each other since elementary school. I want his family to know what an amazing young man Danny was. Talking to people yesterday and today, everyone said the exact same thing; "He was always smiling". I was with Danny Thursday night, and I will always cherish the memory of Danny smiling and laughing to something I had told him about a memory of elementary and middle school. Danny was loved by so many people, and will be in our hearts forever. We love and miss you Danny. RIP my friend, I know you are watching over all of us right now.
