“ As Dan's only brother, I would like to share some thoughts about him. Dan and I have been working together for 29 years. his interests and mine have always been much different. Dan was very interested in sports, especially golf and mine hunting and fishing. I am very thankful that we worked together as I don't think we would have been nearly as close to each other. Breakfast at Zacks restaurant was a biweekly ritual for us where He would tell me about all the latest sports news, (yawn) and I would bore him with my hunting and fishing adventures. Since he got sick, I go to Zacks by myself now, and realize how badly I miss his sports stories and sharing our lives together. He was the most kind and calm person I know. and was always in a good mood. My brother always had my back, whether it was as my crew leader or just helping me with projects or something I needed help with. He was a good husband and father and loved his grand children. One of the hardest workers, He was instrumental in the success of our business. As painful as his passing was, I try to console myself with the thought that he is playing golf with his friend Ron and My Dad who encouraged his golfing and taught him how to play. I know God must have some awesome golf courses up there. (he is God after all) And Dan will play them all. 'I hope his passing is a reminder to all of us that life is fragile and to enjoy it, be kind to others and to cherish friends and family as we don't know when we will be called to the first tee up there to play an ever lasting round with God. “ I'll never forget the golf trip to Florida with Dan, Eddie, Ron and me. Never an argument with Dan around. So easy going. Always quick with a compliment. Always made you feel comfortable. Best golf trip I ever had. I will miss him.

“ Today I looked around my house and saw Dan’s touch everywhere...from the kitchen cabinets, to my gorgeous backsplash, to the custom bookshelf and to every painted surface in my home. I loved having him around during my remodel. We’d have Italian Sticks from Picnic Basket for lunch and talk 70’s rock stars all day long while Pandora played in the background while he and I were working.

Dan loved golf and when he’d turn-in his hours for payroll he’d tell me about his golf game from the weekend. He was always so kind and would ask about my husband’s game too. Dan was a much better golfer. :)

Dan was one of the “good ones” and I just can’t believe he’s gone. I will miss him.

“ We are so sorry to hear of Dan’s passing. We got to know Dan when he was working on our house. We became fast friends and after spending time with him during our lengthy renovation he began to feel like a brother. He was a hard worker, always in a good mood, and became affectionately known to us and his fellow workers as, “Tile Boy”. He will be missed, but will live in forever in our memory, and as we look around our home we are surrounded by the beautiful work he did. RIP Dan.....

*With Love and pleasant memories,
