“ Uncle Bill , I have many fond memories from when you lived in Dearborn Heights, we swam in your pool , slept over many nights , lots of parties and playing baseball. You were there to help my mother with her 8 children. You were Grandma's treasure. She was so proud of you. I loved your quick mind and sense of humor that made you think. You were loving , kind and gracious, A blessing from God and I am sure he is welcoming you home. A life well done, Love Kathy
