“ Daniel,

Mon Ami! You're passing away hit me like a ton of brick. We are all going to miss you. From the time at American Eagle when we first met to Northwest Airlines bankruptcy and finally better days Delta Airlines, I have enjoyed our times together at work. You always came through as a friendly, caring, thorough individual.

You leaving us certainly brings about the notion to enjoy life now and not later. You were a good guy. Thank you!

To Daniel 's Family,

Please accept our most sincere condolences . There are no words to describe this lost. It came too early. He will not be forgotten!

“ I'm so sorry to hear about your loss. I retired from Northwest/Delta last September. Dan & I worked together often on the 757. I thought I recognized his name in the announcement, and as soon as I saw his smiling face in the left seat, I immediately recalled fond memories of our trips together! I also felt heavy-hearted at the loss of a brother way too early. Sincere condolences to your entire family,

“ Linda & family,

I'm so sorry and saddened to hear of Dan's passing, he will be dearly missed both on and off the course. I have many fond memories of golfing with Dan in our golf league and numerous golf outings. My favorite was a golf trip to Myrtle Beach a few years ago. The golf was great and the comradery after golf was memorable. I will miss the opportunity to play competitive but very enjoyable golf with my friend! Unfortunately, I'm currently out of town and will miss the funeral service. A donation has been made to the Pilots for Kids organization.

With my deepest condolences,

Al Hunt

“ I have had the great pleasure in knowing Dan for the past 4 years since we arrived in the US. Dan and I have shared so many interest, particularly Golf and Wine. Like me, Dan plays his golf in a competitive manner but fairly and by the rules. Quick to praise a playing partner on hitting a good shot and equally quick to laugh at one of his own poor ones. Leave the course as you would wish to find it was both our mantras. He always repaired his own divots and pitch marks as well as those of others.

Off the course as well Dan was always thinking of others and was prepared to lend a hand whenever possible.

I have valued our friendship over the last few years, you were truly a great pal. Fate has dealt an tragic hand and you will be deeply missed but never forgotten.
