Daniel Anthony Verderbar

November 24, 1923 - January 19, 2016

Verderbar, Daniel Anthony of Dearborn Heights went home to his heavenly father on January 19, 2016. At age 92, he never dreamed he'd live that long. But he was sharp as a tack, had terrific memories, and was always a great storyteller. Among the dreams he fulfilled in life were playing baseball in the White Sox minor league system as well as with many local teams; being a dedicated Ford Motor employee for 47 years; providing a family cottage on Torch Lake; and most importantly creating a wonderful family. He was married for 61 years to his true love, Anne, who survives him. He was the loving father of 4 children; Daniel F. (Mary Ann), Gerald A. (Leanne), David, and Carol (Kevin) Ingrody. He delighted in and tightly hugged 8 grandchildren: Jill, Danica, Paige, Steven, and Alexis Verderbar, Karen (Nieko) Ianni, and Michael & Lauren Ingrody. Dan was also a dear brother to his sister Pauline Verderbar. Visitation Friday 3-9 PM at Vermeulen-Sajewski Funeral Home, 46401 W. Ann Arbor Rd., (btwn Sheldon & Beck) Plymouth. Rosary Friday 7 PM. In state Saturday 12 PM until the 12:30 PM Funeral Mass at Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church, 47650 N. Territorial Rd., Plymouth. Memorials may be made to Our Lady of Good Counsel of St. Vincent de Paul or The Servants of Jesus of The Divine Mercy. To share a memory, please use the Share a Memory tab on this web page.
