“ Hi! My name is Maria. You don?t know me and I never got a chance to meet Danny, but while glancing thru the death notices in the Detroit News, I noticed that you lost your dear loved one. I have also lost dear friends and family members to death but have found comfort in a few scriptures that offer hope for the future. A well-known prophet, Isaiah, was inspired to write by God some words of comfort. Isaiah 25:8 promises that God will ?actually swallow up death forever? and he will ?wipe the tears from all faces?. Hosea 13:14 promises that God will redeem our loved ones from death. This will all happen soon in the near future. I hope you have found comfort in these scriptures. If you?d like more information as to how we can be a part of this in the future, please feel free to e-mail me at mariawindom@aol.com. I look forward to hearing from you, but if not, know that my prayers are with you. Your neighbor, Maria

“ *To Mr. & Mrs. Don Black (Dory) I send my heart felt sympathy. I am so sorry for Dan's Children & families. I also would like my sympathy expressed to Dale Black. I knew Dan years ago when I was engaged to Dale, way back in the day. I'm sorry I missed the funeral. I just found this obit on line as I was doing a part of my job. I work for Harry J. Will Funeral Homes. I send my prayers out to all of you with sincere hopes that God's love will give you peace in your heart. “ Dearest Heather, I pray for God's love to fill you as you grieve the loss of your father. His comfort is there for you all you need do is ask. His word tells us that He will be a father to the fatherless. May His grace surround you as you face the difficult days ahead. I'm only a phone call away. Love Mary Foster

“ I'm sorry for your loss. We have the encouraging promise at 1 Corinthians 15:25 that this "enemy, death will be brought to nothing" and that one day we will have the wonderful hope of seeing our loved ones again in a resurrection.-"Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." -John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15. May this hope comfort you. Bethanie
