“ Dear Mrs. Armstrong, You and Mr. Armstrong were always so kind to me, welcoming me into your home and making me part of your family. I will always remember the two of you as the best examples of Christian love that I have ever known, not only for each other, but for all who came into your lives. God bless during this time of sorrow. Diane Nash, a former friend of Kathy's from Wayne State

“ A voice out of the past. If my memory serves me well, David took me on my first motorcycle ride (Judy). It has been so many years, but we truly remember Dave being such a nice young man, and a man of strong faith. Judy & Jim Zunich

“ Sally and family, We were very sad to hear of Dave's passing. Even though our time as neighbors has been short, we quickly grew to admire Dave. We considered ourselves very blessed to have moved into the house next door to you all. He truly was an uplifting person to be around, at peace with himself, the world and God. Do know that you are in our thoughts and prayers at this difficult time.

“ I'm so glad I came to visit with you and Sally last spring. Your presence and what you shared was a blessing and a benediction. I rejoice that you are at last with our Savior, Dave, and out of pain and suffering, but, oh, you will be sorely missed.

“ From all the many summer memories I had at the lake with Dave I remember him is a very strong spiritual leader, compassionate, caring, and always so kind. When I was about 5 or 6 at the lake I slipped real bad and scrapped me leg on the stairs walking up from the lake. Dave was right there to comfort me and help me to bandage up that brush burn that hurt so bad. He was so kind and always so caring. We will miss you the lake will be different with out you. But the memories of you will always remain there. Just like the others who have moved on from this life.

“ He renewed my faith and was responsible for my being born again in Christ. His true faith was a testimony for all. His undying faith in Christ was a blessing and legacy that few can say they left to mankind. No one can mourn too much when they think of the richness of both his life and the promise of Christ's death . Jim and I mourn for the living who will miss him. May you find peace in his faith.

“ David played a very big part in my growth as a christian. When We went forward to be baptized by Paul Bersche, Dave was there in the baptismal with a word of prophesy. I don't remember exactly what he said but I do remember that it was rigght on with what was going on with us at the time. When we left our old church to attend RCF Dave was the first person to greet us. That was the start of a friendship that has lasted for the last 26 years. I will truly miss our time together at breakfast and our visits since his illness. I am sad, but at the same time I have joy in my heart knowing that we will see each other agian to continue our "breakfast " talks.

“ I extend my heartfelt sympathy to the Armstrong family. It is never easy to find the right words to say but may those precious memories of your dear loved one be foremost in your hearts and minds along with this wonderful promise that Jesus gave at John 5:28,29. "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment”
