“ To express sincere sympathy in your sorrow. Don't think of him as gone away his journey's just begun. Think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost-

“ What is dying? A ship sails and I stand watching till she fades on the horizon and someone says "she is gone". Gone where? Gone from my sight, that is all. She is just as large as when I saw her. The diminished size and total loss of sight is in me, not in her, and just at the moment when someone at my side says "she is gone", there are others who are watching her coming and other voices take up the glad shout, "here she comes", and that is dying. Good bye Uncle Dave, tell Mom, Grandpa and Grandma we love them too.

“ I'm very sorry to hear of Dave's passing. I worked with him before he retired. He was always a pleasant man with a smile on his face. May God lift your heavy hearts at this time. Your family will be in my prayers.

“Dave has been apart of our family for 6 years. He has came to every function,reunions, dinners,graduations,especially our Christmas Dinner, where he would play Santa for the kids. He was a great person, with a big heart and he never found a stranger in no one. If Dave thought he could help someone, he tried. He will be dearly missed,but always in our hearts and our memories. We love you,Dave.
