

David L. Gladd

December 24, 1949 - December 11, 2024

David L. Gladd

Unfortunately, David Gladd of Northville passed away on December 11th, just two weeks before his 75th birthday. Born in Warren, Ohio he met his wife Margaret Ann of 52 years in the first grade. They both attended school in Hubbard Ohio and Youngstown State University, where he earned his degree as a mechanical engineer.

David's desire to be of public service to his country led him to serve in the Navy and become a civilian project manager for the Bradley Fighting Vehicle at the Army Tank Automotive Command in Warren, Michigan.

In addition to his wife, he leaves behind an older brother, Matthew, a nephew Matthew Warren and his wife Kristin and great nephews Matthew James and David John. He also leaves behind his twin sisters Tina Harrell and Gina Petrich and their daughters Jane Harrell, and Beth Ann Deitsch.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to the Wounded Warrior Project, 48599 Belfort Road, Suite 300, Jacksonville, Florida 32256 or via the website at woundedwarriorproject.org.

Final arrangements were entrusted to The Vermeulen-Sajewski Funeral Home, Plymouth, Michigan.

“ I'm saddened to learn of David's passing. We worked together in the BFV Office at the Detroit Arsenal. He was a fine Engineer and Leader.

I remember him always driving a big car. Job Well Done.
