“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by God, that he will wipe every tears and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ My husband and I knew Dave many years ago. He once did something that left a beautiful memory for us. We were having a very rough financial period and somehow Dave heard about it and walked up to Don and just reached into his wallet and pulled out all that he had and handed it to Don. "Here, he said, maybe this will help". Help it idid and we have shared this generous Christian gesture with many people over the years. Thank you Dave.

“ Dear Sandy, Ron, Cathy, Dan and family, I'm so sorry to hear of your loss. Your dad was a wonderful man, and I have many warm memories of times at your home on Canton Center. He loved his family, and it showed in everything he did. Perhaps he and my dad (who passed in June) are in heaven raising a ruckus together. I did not hear of his passing until last night, and I'm very sorry to have missed visitation. Please know that you are in my prayers for peace and comfort. Your friend, Tina

“ Ruth, my sincerest condolences to you and the whole family. Dave's in a far better place, we know, but still sad for all those left behind. What a loss. So hard to believe. Dave was always filled with such life. Thinking of you as I write this. I know the service is this morning. I'm in an airport about to fly to Florida. Sorry I couldn't be there for the service. My prayers and condolences for the whole family. I'm so glad that you and Dave were able to enjoy the years you did. He sure will be missed. Blessings.
