“ David, I have great memories of all our neighborhood football and baseball games with you, my brothers and the rest of the neighborhood gang, memories I cherish each and everyday. As those days past we were again brought back together working together In the kitchen of the Oak Leaf around the time you had your first run in with cancer. Your contagious humor and constant smile where always a reminder of all that is good in our world. I remember what a cute couple you and the young bus girl made, but little did we know then that she would become your beautiful bride and the wife by your side holding your hand through all the trials life would hand to you, both of you are very blessed fortunate to have had each other though all these years. I am so glad I was able to run into the two of your a few years back at the Austin 4th of July events and to have the opportunity to renew our friendship and was blessed to see that same smile on your face even during a time when you were still keeping such a positive view on what life had dealt you with all the health issues. I could be more proud to say you were my friend and pray that you have found peace and sure you will be looking down and watch over us all. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Deb and the rest of your family, praying they can find peace in life following their loss of a great man. God Bless all of your.

“Deb, Josh, Mitch, and family, it's difficult to know what to say, but we want to know we're grieving along with you. We have many happy memories with Dave from our time together - brewing beer, golfing, going to live music, painting over pink walls (yikes, that was trippy), our families hanging out ('the spaghetti situation' is an often repeated story). As always the case with special people, there's never enough time, never the right words to describe how special someone is. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all - God bless, Rich, Laura,Carolynn, and David.
