

David K. Tamm

August 21, 1935 - February 21, 2019

David K. Tamm died peacefully on February 21, 2019 surrounded by his family. He was 83 years old. David was the beloved husband of the late Elizabeth, loving father of Jonathan Tamm and Stephanie (Scott) Eberlein, and the proud grandfather of Karis and Amos Eberlein. He is also survived by his two sisters and extended family living in Hong Kong. David was born in Canton, China on August 21, 1935. He grew up in Hong Kong before traveling to Australia and then settling in the United States, where he became a naturalized citizen. David met his wife Elizabeth as a pen pal while she was living and working in her native Poland. They arranged a visit in 1972 and were married six weeks later. They settled in Ann Arbor and there they raised their family. David loved to travel and especially enjoyed visiting national parks and presidential libraries. He was a man of strong faith and loved to read, explore, and debate questions about God and faith with his friends and children. Memorial contributions may be made to aid in the research of Progressive Supranuclear Palsy at the Michigan Brain Bank, 400 N. Ingalls St. Ann Arbor, MI 48109. A private service will be held at the family home. Arrangements by Vermeulen-Sajewski Funeral Home, Plymouth.
