“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by Jehovah God, that he will wipe every tear and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ Brenda, I am Jake and Lois Deboer's daughter. My son's name was Matt Webber. A soldier who went home to be with his Father 4-27-06. I remember your Mom and Dad being at the funeral in Stanwood. Your parents were a big part of our church in Cedar Rapids IA. I can't tell you how often our family prayed for Dave and your family. We understand how difficult it is to trust that God is in control. We do all we can do and so many times it just doesn't seem enough. My heart grieves for you, as I know you remained faithful, loving and caring for Dave. How long the days and nights were. Our only comfort now is that Dave is with the Father and the pain and frustration is over. You however need to let your family and friends help you find peace and rest now. God never left you alone and He is there for you now. Allow your friends and family to pray for you and somehow allow you to make sense and purpose for his life. I am so proud of your commitment and love for your husband. I so wish I could be there for you on Saturday. I am sending you a book that helped me. When you are ready, you may find it helpful. I will continue to pray comfort and strength for your family. please feel free to call anytime if you just need to talk. I will be there to just listen, as my heart has gone thru a similar journey. Peace and mercy to you my sister in Christ. (Our only HOPE). Love Jayne (Matt's Mom)

“ To the family of David Zinn. My wife and I have had the privilege of praying for David through our friendship with George and Fran Kroeze. We cried as his tent (Body of this World) gave way to the weakness of this world. We rallied as he fought each day to see his beauty wife and family one more time, while struggling with the meaning of going on. We have cried with hope as he is now seeing the faith he believed in, but knowing that Brenda will need to live each day with the hope that the loving God who now sees David face to face, is the same God who will walk her through the days to come. You all will be in our hearts and we come alongside you as a brother and sister who will see you and David in eternity some day. God Bless Wayne and Sue Ondersma

“ Dear Brenda & Family-
May the "God of all comfort" pour out His grace and mercy on you during this difficult time of loss. Our family is still relatively new at PCA; we have truly been impressed with Amy's commitment and witness and also the sweet spirit you always show Brenda. Our hearts weep with you and pray His hope will continue to burn bright and brighter in your hearts. You are in our prayers. In Christian love.

“ Brenda. We were saddened to hear of the passing of your dear one. As friends of your parents, we have been praying for your family and following with concern the turns your lives have taken. However, as Paul says, "To be with Christ is much better." Your family will remain in our prayers. God bless.
