“First of all, I would like to say that I send my deepest condolences to Dawn’s husband, son, brothers, nieces, nephews, cousins and additional family and friends who grieve in her absence.

I met Dawn at her cousin Dean’s house back in 1990. She gave quite the impression right from the start. We spent a lot of time together throughout the 1990s that include a great deal of fun times that I will never forget.

I loved Dawn with all of my heart and I grieved with her as she lost other family members, including her cousin Dean and her aunts and her mom and dad, etc. These people were like family to me too. I will forever cherish all of the family gatherings that I was so fortunate to share with her.

Dawn had a special sparkle in her eye that led to her soul. She was beautiful inside and out! She was strong and brave while remaining gentle at the same time.

I love you, Dawn, and I will see you again when the Lord brings me home. Until then, I will do my best to stay strong as the tears flow down my face because I know that you are in a good place where you will never feel hurt or sick again. Rest in peace, my dear friend.

“ Dawn was the coolest person I knew growing up. She let Tommy and I into the movies for free ;) at Fairlane all the time when she worked there. Late night chats at the dinner table at the Anton house, and always concerned for how I was doing. She was the “Belle of the ball” in my opinion. She will surely be missed. Taken too soon.

“ Dearest James & James Jr. I am so very sorry for your loss 😞. The world has lost a beautiful soul and dear friend to so many . My heart is aching for you💔.

I remember the first time meeting you and Dawn and your sweet dog in your truck at the Vintage Soul Sisters meet up in Cincinnati 🐶. She was a breath of fresh air. I was so excited to see this special follower .She warmed my heart, with her excitement of us meeting. Then again in Texas at Magnolia! Her smiling face was the first I saw , waiting to say hi and greet with a huge hug. She felt like home . Thank you for always supporting her love of the creative world, and driving the many miles across the states to do a little meeting , greeting and junking 🍷.

She so appreciated those trips☐. We had plans for many more of those meetups and adventures !!

I'm so glad we were blessed with the ones that we had and the true bond that followed .

I saved the voice message Dawn sent me after our sweet beloved creator, Sheri Wilson passed. She said she didn't want to wait another minute to tell me how much she truly loved me. She knew how fleeting time could be .I will never forget how important that call was to me .

Rest well sweet Dawn . We will go junking again together one day,sweet friend ☐☐ ❤️

Sending prayers and comfort to you ,James ,and the family 🙏💕.
