“ I'm sorry for your loss. DeAnna will truly be missed... One thing that helps me to deal or cope with losing a dear loved one, is this Scripture (Revelation 21:3,4 reads: "God...will wipe all tears from their eyes, and their will be no more death, suffering, crying, or pain."-Comtemporary English Version.

“ Dear Nora & Ray,
Our thoughts are of you and your terrible loss of DiDi. We were shocked. It was over a week before we heard because we left Rochester on the 25th and took a week plus to get to Ormond Beach. Please know that you and your family are in our prayers.

“ Dear Tim,
I didn't know DeAnna for very long. It doesn't take long to see what a beautiful person she is, inside and out. I hope it's ok that I'm not talking about her in the past tense. I truly feel that our loved ones are still with us in one way or another. DeAnna is a great mother and lives on through your lovely children. I will miss her smile. I know she is still watching over her family. I feel honored for the time I was able to spend with her.

“ Hannah, Tim and family
There are no words to express our sympathy. Know that we are thinking about you. If Hannah ever wants to come over for a play date just drop me an email. Tim if you remember Derek and Hannah were "in love" during pre-school last year.
My prayer is that God wraps his arms around your family and gives you the strength to work through this terrible time.
Sincerely,
Hali Gorski

“ Our thoughts and prayers and love go out to all of you especially, you, Tim and Hannah, Benjamin, Laura, and Sarah. When DeAnna told me that both of you would be Lenora's godparents, I was so honored and proud that she would have a very special set of godparents. DeAnna will always be her godmother and you, Tim will always be her godfather. We are so very sorry and are here if you need anything.
