“ To the Gossett Family. I'm very sorry for your loss of Deanna, she will truly be missed... I did not know Deanna or the Family. But to share encouragement from the Bible is what I do. Mrs. Gossett Deanna's Mother, even though its been almost 2 years since you loss Deanna, Please be assured of Jehovah's promises through Christ. I read some of the things that you said about your grandson, Logan, and his mom's twin Auntie Krissy. It breaks my heart to read the beautiful things written about them. Losing a child to death is pain unbearable, one that I hope not to experience. You talked about scriptural references about the resurrection hope please take comfort in those scriptures. Here is more: "if a man die, shall he live again?" asked the man Job long ago. (Job chapter 14:verse 14 King James Version) Perhaps you, too, have wondered about this, how would you feel if you knew that a reunion with your loved one was possible right here on earth under the best of conditions? Well the Bible makes the promise: "Your dead ones will live...They will rise up." And the Bible also says: "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it."-Isaiah 26:19; Psalm 37:29. If you would like to know more about the Resurrection hope, Please visit our official website at www.jw.org

“ Wanted to add these scriptures. We have the encouraging promise in 1 Corinthians 15:25 that this "enemy, death will be brought to nothing" and that one day we will have the wonderful hope of seeing our loved ones again in a resurrection.-"Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." -John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15.

As time passes it just feels like our hearts get dragged along even further. The loss of you is still fresh in my mind and heart just like it had happened yesterday. I know you would want all of us to move on but it is so unbelievably hard. Christmas is almost here. That is the season to be with family but with the loss of you our Christmases to come will never be the same. Our family will never be whole again. “ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is our common enemy as it affects all of us. I therefore want to encourage the family to take heart and be hopeful in the promise by God, that he will wipe every tears and no more will be any death again. Death will be brought to nothing, Isaiah 25:8 and 1Corinthians 15:28. God by means of Jesus will call and all that died will hear his voice and come out. John 5:25. We have an opportunity to see our dead loved ones come back to life again and never to die. What a wonderful moment that will be!

“ Dear, Beautiful Deanna.. My childhood friend. We shared so many memmories together, and your family became and extended part of my own. I will remember the memmories the 4 of us had, Crissy, yourself, Teri and I, and keep them close to my heart forever. You showe'd me so much as a child! How to be fearless and just live! you were alway's such a free spirt, and i'd like to thank you for that! a quote i seen a while ago that comforted me when i lost someone close to me and hopefully it will help in your case as well. But i can leave u with this sayin that has made me cry ...but is so true about loosing a loved one.. "Even tho My body has been laid to rest. I know i can now be at peace and my spirit will live on forever, you see i may have passed, but i will never truely die, because i live on in the heart's of those who love me. god has welcomed me with open arm's and i can now rest in peace. I will not go in fear, as i now know.. we will meet again one day.. and i will meet you at the pearly gate's with god by my side.. and show you what i have learned and on this side, you see here there is nothing to fear, no worries no regrets, just pure bliss. and i to wish i could show you this world in which i reside, Not now! but when we meet again"

“ If you believed in Angels... would we part from the ones we love? If you believed in Angels... would we doubt the heavens above? If you believed in Angels... would you cry your self to sleep? If you believed in Angels... will your pain always hurt so deep? If you believed in Angels... do you think you'll always cry? If you believed in Angels... do you think you would ever lie? If you believe in Angels... would you always do what was right? If you believed in Angels... do you think we would ever fight? “ Deanna, You are a Very Special, Unique Beautiful Lady for whom I have had the pleasure of knowing. I will always remember our long conversations & will cherish how you trusted me with your deepest thoughts, dreams & tribulations. Over the past few months, I don't there has been a day that's went by that we haven't spoke on the phone, mostly about us getting your home sold, but even more so, how it will help you to start a new life....I guess God's plan was for you to start new in heaven, where he can watch over you & keep you safe, a place where you'll feel no pain & experience all the happiness you've always deserved. It makes me think now that maybe God took Jay just in time to prepare for your arrival, I'm certain he will protect you like a little sister, just as your brother Kenny has during your time on earth. Your adorable laugh, Your loving heart & Your contagious smile will be truley missed! Luv ya D, Stacy You have so many people that love you dearly, I pray that they believe that you will always be near and will never leave their hearts.

“ To my loving twin sister: even when we were apart-we were still one. I can't even express the pain of not having you physically around to argue with and stick up for each other. It feels like a nightmare. I wish I could wake up and this was all dream. I love and I will miss you forever. We will meet again one day in heaven. God, please hold her in your arms and keep her safe. I love you soooooo much and I miss you terribly. Love your twin sister, Krissy---I will write to you again soon. XXXOOOO
