“ Dear Rich..... Eric and Melissa,

You have my very deepest sympathy in the loss of your precious wife and mother. Debbie was a very good friend of my dad's for over 30 years (maybe 40). She knew how to laugh and to have fun. I have memories of her way back to my teenaged years..... She always made me feel welcome, like part of the family. Later, I had the privilege of hearing about her faith in Jesus and even getting to pray with her in that awesome Red Wings room! My heart goes out to each of you in your grief, and I am praying for you constantly. Sending so much love, Julie (Foster) Embry

“ Linda, Debbie's sister that passed in 2005 use to tell me stories about how it was growing up and how it was she and Debbie against the world...Losing their mother at 10 and 11 years old and being left with an alcoholic Father who had even 3 younger children to take care of was just to much. Debbie and Linda were overcomers and each raised several families. Debbie loved so many. She was a huge influence in her sister Linda's life and even stayed with us when we were over burdened. Debbie, was one of my partners during Linda's fight with cancer and we had a very close bond. I will sincerely miss her. Her sister Coleen, her children, nieces, nephews, and grand children carry a part of her in them and you can sense her in their ways and personalities. Pretty big shoes to fill but knowing you all and knowing how proud she was of all of you, gives me confidence that her memory will never die and Her way will live on. My greatest comfort in her passing is knowing her faith and knowing how she is now with Christ and her sister Linda eternal. Dance dear Debbie dance.

“ My dear Debbie,
You fought a good fight.
I'll miss our talks, my movie and dinner buddy.
It's easier knowing your at peace.
Love You My Friend, Jeannine

“ I am so sorry for your loss. My thoughts are with you & your family during this difficult time. I am deeply saddened by her loss. I know she is in a better place & this moment has been coming, but that doesn't make it any easier. The only comfort I have is she is no longer in pain. I believe that Jesus & family was so important to her that she held on until after Christmas so that she could spend one last Christmas with you all. Debbie was a wonderful person. She truly was the heart of the neighborhood, hosting the annual summer block party & evening talks at her house. We both loved watching UofM football games & tennis. She took me to my first professional tennis match in the mid 80's between Ivan Lendl & Tim Mayotte. I will truly miss my friend & our talks.

“ Melissa and Eric,
I remember your mom was always so supportive and loving toward both of you and your friends (me). She influenced our musically taste, from Bon Jovi to the Rolling Stones and everything in between. I'll always remember her and her love of Escorts (lol, kidding). She was a bright light of love, warmth and kindness as will continue to shine in the eyes and hearts of your children and everyone she touched. I love you both. Xo
