“ I will treasure every moment shared with you. I will never laugh like I laughed with you. I will never have a best friend as you were to me. I will never forget you. I will never be the same without you in my life. Until we laugh again my forever friend. Love you.

“ Debbie, my niece, has played a huge part in my life, especially after my husband, Jim passed away. Whenever they arrived at their beloved Crystal Lake cottage, she & Bob made a trip to my home many times to ask if I needed help in any way....Helped me find lost car keys in a busy house on the 4th of July, put a glider together on the front deck with Bob & Sarah, planted flowers around the cottage, went to an estate sale down the road...always fun and loads of laughs....She and Bob were so giving in many other ways, taking care of Aunt Ruby many years ago, taking in my brother Dale & Maxine (Bob's mother and dad) and Deb's mother, too...I know she is smiling down on us all right not....love you Deb and miss you. Aunt Barb
