“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Deborah will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with losing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It states, " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life....." Soon we will be able to see Deborah again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. I hope this gives some comfort. (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ When someone we love dies ,our hearts are broken and we grieve .Death is not natural and it was not Gods purpose for mankind to die .Soon our loving Father Jehovah will get rid of this enemy that cause us so much pain .At 1 Corinthians 15:26 " As the last enemy ,death is to be brought to nothing ". When death is destroyed the dead will rise again ."John 5:28,29 ." The scripture at 1Corinthians 15: 26

“ I send my love and prayers from afar while you all celebrate the life of someone who has truly touched us all. Her love and lessons will remain with us always and in this way, she is never fully gone from us or the lives of our children, who she loved dearly. DeDe taught me a ver imprtant final lesson in that life can change for us no matter how strong or how brave we are in this world. Take chances, live, love, share, smile. DeDe would have wanted it this way :)

“ To Beth and Family: I was sorry to hear about Deborah's death you know we worked together for a while at the Service Center in Garden City, and you and i worked together at the livonia Service Center. Deborah was a very funny person and i am sure she will be missed, but God's word the bible promises that we may be able to see our love ones again in the very near future. Almighty God has the power and the desire to resurrect persons whom he chooses. John5:28,29; Acts 24:15. You will be in my prayers beth, call me if you need to talk. 313 212-2638
