This was supposed to play Amazing Grace, and it doesn't appear to be doing that, but I want people to know God's Amazing Grace is for you! My Uncle Delbert knew that, and he would want you to know it to so that you can see him again someday, because of Jesus!

“ Every time I work on my car, I think of Del. We spent many, many Saturdays working together on the family car. I learned how to do my own tune-ups, do brake jobs, replace various parts, and how to diagnose problems. He gave me the confidence to fix things myself instead of paying someone else to do it.

I saw his love for the Lord. I learned much from him. My heart goes out to all of the family, praying for you all. Much love, Julie

“ Growing up, I always enjoyed going to Grandpa Schroeders house. Schroeders are the nicest and friendliest people you'll ever meet. Grandpa Schroeder was such a good man. I remember staying at their house and in the morning he and Grandma doing their daily devotions together. He loved God and I hope to one day love the Lord like he did. I also treasure one of the heirlooms I received from him when I was 18. I love you Grandpa Schroeder. See you in heaven! -JTS

My Father was so special to me. For the last few weeks at the hospital I was introduced as the third daughter, or the baby of the family. I loved always saying I was his favorite. He didn't have to tell the others. Dad and I were a lot alike. We could take people on our terms. He taught me how to do a budget, love toosie rolls, and to trust in God. He also taught me work ethics-if you had job to do you give it your all. You never walk away from a job. My job, and privilege on Thursday night was to sing hymns to my dad (with my family) and pray for my father as he left this earth and went to heaven. I love you dad and miss you so much! I wish you were here one more time to call me from my childhood nickname you gave me "snookipooks". BK
