

Denman Charles Curry

July 28, 1952 - January 29, 2023

Denman Charles Curry of Westland, MI passed away peacefully Sunday, January 29th, after a long battle with Parkinson's Disease. He received his Last Rights the previous day, surrounded by family and bathed in the Lord's love. Denman was born July 28th, 1952 in Ann Arbor, Michigan. The third child of Donald and Dorothy (Woolaver) Curry, he leaves behind his brother, Donald Curry Jr., and his beloved sister, Barbara Wingrove. Denman will be remembered fondly as the kind man that made lifelong friends wherever he went – from his office days at ADP, to selling houses as a relator with Keller Williams, or checking bags at Delta Airlines, Denman always managed to come home with a story and a smile. On April 13th 1985, Denman married the love of his life, Karen Bissett. They remained together for 30 years, until amicably separating in 2012. Those thirty years of married life blessed his family with some of the best memories they'll ever have: impromptu ballroom dancing in the living room, houseboating on Lake Cumberland, and epic road trips featuring Denman singing with the widest smile he could muster. Along with his love for classic rock and all things Old Hollywood, Denman was a sucker for a disaster flick and took a liking to the macabre – within the first few minutes of greeting you he would often cite which celebrity had recently died, or what natural disaster was brewing and where. It was that duality that so many loved in him – he was the man who had moved to California to chase his dreams, but he was also the man who wanted to stay at home, cook a fine meal, and watch Titanic with his pug, Dinah. Denman is survived by his stepdaughter, Carly McMillin, his daughter Chelsey Curry, and his beloved nephews, Steven and Doug Wingrove. Visitation Wednesday, February 1st 6-8 PM with a 7 PM Funeral Service at Vermeulen-Sajewski Funeral Home, 980 N. Newburgh Road (between Ford Road and Cherry Hill) Westland.
