“ "Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." Is this not comforting to know that our dead loved ones will have a chance to live again. This scriptures at John 5:28, 29 and many other scriptures of Jehovah God's word the Bible can help us through times like this.

“ Pam, Mehgan, and family,

So sorry to hear about Dennis and will be praying for all of you during this difficult time. It was good to get you know you during our years in volleyball at LCS! Dennis was such a good fan and did so much work for the teams and getting recognition for our girls at the state level. I am sure we did not thank him enough! Take care and God Bless All Of You!

Kathy Bailey - December 12, 2014 at 10:11 AM

“ Pam and family, just wanted to express my deepest sympathies on behalf of my family and the LCS family at large. We have been keeping your family in our thoughts and prayers since we heard the news and will continue to do so. We so enjoyed the "volleyball" years and getting to know you and Dennis and the girls. Dennis was so faithful to video taping and so passionate about being a fan. His work in putting together highlight reels of the seasons and getting recognition on the state levels for so many of our athletes was such a labor of love for him. He was a great example of a Christian man, husband and dad and had a great enthusiastic outlook on life. Traci and I have thought of you guys often as we pass the church along the highway on our way to some destination. May you feel God's presence and peace during this time.

“"The righteous perish, and no one takes it to heart; the devout are taken away, and no one understands that the righteous are taken away to be spared from evil. Those who walk uprightly enter into peace; they find rest as they lie in death. (Isaiah 57:1, 2 NIV)" Pam, May You be comforted by God's loving words! Praying for you and your family.

“ As your neighbor I have lots of recent memories of Dennis. Absolutely loved hearing stories of his very interesting work. Recently I saw him sitting outside on your glider with Connor, and remember thinking how proud and contented he looked as I said "Hi Grandpa" to him. Also, just the day before his homegoing, Dennis wandered over to chat. He had just come home from Saturday evening church service. He told us that he felt God was asking him to step out of his comfort zone. He was pleased to let us know he had just sang in the church choir with 300 men. And was going to sing twice more the next day. I am sure he did and was pleased to have done so. What strikes me most about that chat with Dennis, is that he was obedient to God's call to the very end. WELL DONE, THOU GOOD AND FAITHFUL SERVANT.

“ How quickly God slips into our lives and says I have a new assignment for you! And we didn't even get a chance to vote on it or offer a rebuttal. These next steps will be overwhelming at the least. But you've sat and work near a man who although he says he has no mercy knows how to deeply care. I am grateful for that spot for you. And as he said to me, I am sorry you are on this journey. I am praying for you for an abundance of memories to celebrate your hubby, and friends galore eager to share his impact on their lives. Blessings, Pam, as you navigate these days ahead.

“ Dennis had been a good friend for 10 or so years. Lots of long conversations, stories of our grandkids, the joys of family. He was a blessing in my life. His last breath on earth was followed by his next breath in heaven. There is comfort in knowing that.

“ There are no earthly words to express our sorrow for Dennis' passing. His smile and warmth lit up a room. His love for his Creator will be his earthly legacy to all who were blessed to know him. Our fondest and most spiritual memory of him comes from his love of sharing the word of God with us in our early days at CCBC church. We were the only members of his first Experiencing God bible study. He was very patient with us. Pam, may your family rest in these memories that we share.

“ I met Dennis 35 years ago in Oak Ridge, Tennessee. He was one of the brightest, most creative and sincere people I have had the opportunity to know. It was during this period that Dennis and Pam met. Individually and together Dennis and Pam were two of the best friends anyone could ever hope for. Over time Dennis and I became as close as brothers. We moved our families to Michigan. We worked together. We experienced the growth and joys of each others' families as if they were our own. Dennis left his indelibly wonderful characteristics on everyone and everything he touched. Like everyone who Dennis knew I will miss him very much, but I will retain nearly a life-time of memories of my best friend and 'brother'.
