“ I just heard the news and am shocked and saddened. I worked for Denny for several years and appreciated his passion for the product and the people. Denny helped and guided me in my career and I will always be grateful for knowing him. I am sad for the family but please know that Denny was respected and appreciated by the people he worked with.

“ My deepest sympathy for the family at this difficult time. Denny was a great man and will be truly missed. He was a teacher, a mentor, a guide, and most of all someone I considered a friend. He helped me through some difficult times in my life and my career. It was an honor and a privilege to have had the opportunity to work under his guidance. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
