“ A lifetime of memories....the family get togethers during summer, fall, holidays, any time-really....times she babysat us girls while our folks went out for an evening-we'd dance with her, spy on her, laugh with her, get hollered at by her....She was always so pretty, kind and loving, always upbeat. I remember her graduation with our other cousins that graduated the same year, her open house, when she went to beauty school I used to hope I could do hair as well as she did. When I got married, she told me that she was a little envious of me and Kim cuz we were both married and expecting before her....I told her that someone special was out there and not to be in such a hurry like Kim and I were in starting a family. (lol) When she and Dale were married-she was so very happy. She was also happy to leave the beauty shop to assist Dale with his racing and the stores....children were the love of her life also. She was so excited when she told me she was expecting a baby. :-) Despite the many miles apart through the years-we always talked like it was yesterday's conversation to continue. I look forward to the day when Jesus coms to awaken her and we spend eternity in Heaven together-God be with you Dale, Dale Jr, Brandi, Kim & family, Bobbi & family, Robin & Paige with other Hargrave, Hunt, Mitchell, Wilson family members as we say 'good night' to Diana for now. Hugs from God and me with prayers for healing. Love you so very much!!! Wish I could be there with you too.....

“ I am so glad I was able to go to the family gathering at your house a few year's back. Even tho we were cousin's that was the first time I met you. You treated me as if you knew me all of my life and the time I shared with all of you that day I will never forget. Love you cousin. I will never forget you. R.I.P.

“ My heart aches for my cousins family and all that knew her. I have many happy memories of Diane. She always made everyone smile when she was around you. When I was little I remember always thinking, "I want to be just like her. She's so beautiful!" And she was, inside and out. She had a very bright light within her that I believe will continue to shine always. May you Rest in Peace Diane and May God Heal the Hearts of your Family.
