“ My dearest friend, words cannot convey how I cherished our special bond. You were the best friend a person could ever ask for and I miss you so very much. I met your beautiful grand baby Emma and held her in my arms today. She is everything and more you said and I'm so happy you had the time you did with her. You have raised two wonderful sons and you had every right to brag about them. Rest In Peace my friend until we meet again. Love you.

“ Diana you are a gift from God into the lives of those you loved and who loved you. We are all at a loss at losing you so suddenly. Always in the days ahead I will think of my "MissP" at the sweetest and most challenging times. I will loving wish I had any of the many many skill sets you mastered so seemingly easily: Your positive attitude, craft abilities, computer skills, easy comprehension. your humor (I remember the lunch at the Gaslight where I screwed up 3 jokes in a row?) You were a GREAT joke teller. There is so much more. Through and from your myriad of health issues you helped me embrace my own. In that sense you empowered me. Mostly, I will miss your faith in God. My friend, you are in your heavenly home now. Look down on us all and intercede for us until the day we are together again my dear friend.

“ A Letter to Diana:

*Dear Diana,
Although you left us much too soon, we'd like to take a moment and Thank You.....*

*Thank you - for your friendship and kindness....
Thank you - for loving our brother, Bob, unconditionally and fully....
Thank you - for welcoming Bob's family into your life and giving to us all unselfishly....
Thank you - for all the laughter and moments spent playing cards....
Thank you - for the conversations, both serious and those filled with foolish gossip....
Thank you - for always putting a smile on for those around you,
especially when you didn't feel like smiling....
Thank you - for touching our lives....*

We will miss you....

*Love,
John and Shelly*

“ I am so glad Diana was a part of my life...her laughter brightened the days. Her skills with computer technology, sewing/embroidery, crafts, parenting, and knowing how to have fun made her a wonderful loving person to be around. I will miss her but will remember her often as a friend.

“ Diane was the consummate friend: always there for others, no matter their station in life. While Heaven was her obvious destiny, this was just too soon. She leaves behind a lasting legacy of kindness. Thanking God for blessing us with Diane.
