

Diana N. Moldovan

April 20, 1920 - June 15, 2021

Diana Natalie (Dolly) (nee Petrovich-Zigich) Moldovan. Born April 20th, 1920 to June 15, 2021 Detroit Michigan the eldest of seven children and sister of Lillian Martin.

Loving wife to George, mother to George (Dolores) and Paul (Donna), grandmother to Robert, Paul, and Felicia, and great-grandmother to Samuel, Kaitlyn, Carter, and Natalie.

Diana's biggest passion in her life was first and foremost was being there for her family. She was a fiercely independent woman and outlived her husband George by nearly 45 years and almost to the very end took care of her own needs. She was a giving person who donated to many charities that dealt with ill children and people of special needs.

Visitation Sunday, June 20th 3-9 PM at Vermeulen-Sajewski Funeral Home, 46401 Ann Arbor Road West (between Sheldon and Beck) Plymouth. Funeral Service Monday, June 21st 11 AM at the funeral home.

The family requests any service donations to be given to her favorite charity St. Jude Children's Hospital, 501 St Jude PL, Memphis, TN 38105-9959. To share a memory, please use the Share a Memory tab on this webpage.

“ Known to us as Auntie Dolly, I can attest that she was independent, hard-working and loved to laugh! The world was a better place because Auntie Dolly was in it! She was funny, affectionate, and so loving toward our parents and all of us sisters. I'm so grateful that Auntie Dolly and uncle George were part of our lives. Memory Eternal! ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️ Roberta Zivanov
