“ Diane proudly served her community as a volunteer for First Step and Barefoot Productions. More than that, she was a gracious friend and I know I wouldn't be where I am today without her. My heart goes out to Ron, their daughter, and their grandkids during this difficult time.

“ Diane, a warm, wonderful supportive friend, who took friendship beyond the regular meaning and made our family an extension of her own. We enjoyed her humor and her love of life. She will be greatly missed, but the memories will remain and be cherished always. Our prayers are with Ron, Cheryl and all of Diane's family. We love you Diane.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with Ron and the entire family of Diane. She was a wonderful, upbeat, and caring lady. We remember how hard she worked to look after Ron during his cancer treatments and realized then how much love she showed all of us too.
