“ Im truly sorry to hear about your lost. Dolores will definitely be missed by so many. One thing that helps me deal or cope with loosing a loved one is the scripture John 5:28,29. It stats " Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." Soon we will be able to see Dolores again because God (Jehovah) promises a resurrection hope. Also if you notice that it uses the term "memorial tomb" and not [Grave] which means Gods memory. Dolores seemed like a really nice lady, a person that God will definitely remember. I hope this gives some comfort. Dion R (Truth.1914@yahoo.com)

“ Dolores was truly one of a kind! I was lucky enough to have grown up with her in my life. God has taken her to the one place where she can now be at peace. We will all miss her prayers and blessings, even if you weren't a religious person her words were reassuring and uplifting. Dick, Dean and Derek I am so sorry for your loss, I can't seem to find the words that describe Dolores other than a true blessing, I am thankful to have had her in my life. Peace be with you!

“ We will miss your soft voice, your unique laugh and your gentle touch, whenever you saw us you would always touch our hands and reassure us that things would be alright and that life and God were good, I will especially miss going to family functions with you, because you were the only one who would fill me in on who was who and what was what. Love your sister in law Barbara

“ Dolores, you have always been such a good big sister to me. I am so sorry you had suffered in pain so bad, but I hope you are in peace now and free from all the pain you were in. Thanks for all that you did in life, and for being there for me and for sharing our tears and laughs through the years. I love you and I will miss you. One day we will be back in touch. Love ya, your little sister Mary Jo

“ Dolores was our dear neighbor and brought lots of joy to the neighborhood. She was one of a kind and one of the sweetest women I have ever known. She was also my (favorite) cosmetology teacher years ago and we were lucky enough to reconnect :- ) Miss Dolores, we will miss you dearly.
