Thoroughly enjoyed being able to view the service since we were not able to attend. (Live in Traverse City). Our condolences go out to the entire Zabinski family. We hope to find a way to get together with everyone in the new year to share stories on how wonderful a woman Dolores was. Dorian and Darlene

“ My condolences to the Zabinski family. I met Dolores through the Polka Booster Club of America. When able, she always made sure she got her dance tickets early and wanted to sit at a certain table with her friends of which she had many. She lived a long life and is now with the Lord.
