

Dona Ellen Capanyola

December 15, 1950 - January 8, 2026

Dona Ellen Capanyola, age 75, of Plymouth, Michigan, passed away peacefully on January 8, 2026.

Born on December 15, 1950, in Madison, Indiana, Dona was the daughter of the late Donald Bowling and Ida Mae Bowling (née Bennett). She graduated from Homewood-Flossmoor High School in 1968 and went on to earn her degree from Northern Illinois University in 1972.

On May 30, 1976, she was united in marriage to Bradley Robert Capanyola at Infant Jesus of Prague Catholic Church in Flossmoor, Illinois (Now part of St. Veronica Parish.)

Dona devoted her career to education, working as a middle school teacher specializing in physical education and history until her retirement in 1993. She touched the lives of countless students with her dedication and warmth.

Beyond the classroom, Dona found joy in many pursuits. She enjoyed golf, boating on White Lake, and spending treasured time with her family, especially her beloved granddog Sonoma. She was a gracious and enthusiastic hostess, known for her beautifully organized and joy-filled Christmas gatherings, which became a cherished tradition for many.

She was the devoted wife of the late Bradley Capanyola; loving mother of Diana (Michael) McDonald and the late Laura Capanyola; and proud grandmother of Abigail and Jack McDonald, and granddog Sonoma. She is also survived by her brothers, Michael Bowling and Donald (Jill) Bowling Jr., and was preceded in death by her sister, Marlenea Wooten.
