“ I remember staying the night at Uncle Don’s and Aunt Julia’s in Garden City, climbing their Cherry Tree, eating Snowballs (ice cream treat), playing with Blondie and attending church with them. Good memories
May you rest in peace Uncle
Prayers go out to Donny, Bethann, and their families

“ I got to know Don Harvey through the ROMEOS lunch events. I found him to be a very interesting person. He served in Korea as a U.S. serviceman. I wished I’d heard more stories. He was a good ball player as was his Dad. It was obvious he lived his family very much. An honorable Christian man who will be missed.
